Vice President's (Academics) Message

Congratulations Graduate. You've worked hard to achieve your goals and now you're on your way to seek new landscapes, new dreams, embark on who you are, embrace life with passion and keep reaching for your ultimate goals!

Let me extend my earnest felicitations to all the graduating students and their parents on this happy occasion of Convocation-2020, where the year 2020 was also a Silver Jubilee Year for SZABIST. It is certainly a hallmark and a big milestone in your career.

Please don't forget, you are out of few very privileged people who have obtained this opportunity. Think of those who can never even start their schooling. It must be a proud moment for you. Please compare your knowledge & confidence which you have now viz-a-viz the one when you had entered in this institution. Please remember your faculty and supporting staff who have helped you to make a successful person. The best way to payback your institution is to show your best abilities and character in all walks of life, being its ambassador.

Unfortunately, due to COVID, we are unable to do our celebrations in a manner which we have been doing traditionally every year. Your institution has given top priority to your health and has tried its level best to deliver the best education possible under the circumstances through Online for the last couple of semesters.

I sincerely wish you a good luck in all your future endeavors!

Executive Development Center

How does the Executive Development Center Help?

The SZABIST Executive Development Center (EDC) is steadily contributing towards building and developing business, social, legal, media, life sciences, information technology, and engineering graduates geared towards becoming the corporate leaders of tomorrow. The Center facilitates SZABIST students and alumni in all their academic and professional ventures to help them climb the ladder of corporate success.

EDC ensures that students have timely access to information on the latest jobs and internship opportunities by acting as a liaison between them and the corporate world. It coaches students to shine in employee assessments by advising them on resume writing and interview skills. It is responsible for arranging career fairs and publishing the annual Graduate Directory to enhance students' networking.

Managing relations with SZABIST alumni is a priority of EDC. It provides a platform to facilitate and streamline interaction among SZABIST's graduates by building mutually beneficial networks for mentoring, exploring placement opportunities, and organizing guest speaker sessions, seminars, and sponsorships. It maintains a thorough and comprehensive online database of the alumni to keep their information updated. The alumni are kept involved the whole year round through different events and social activities. Alumni are regularly invited for mentoring sessions on the "Alumni Ambassador Show" broadcasted on ZABFM 106.6, and as guest speakers and trainers to mentor and guide the final year students. Besides academic engagements, an alumni reunion is organized by the EDC every year. Its latest initiative is the launch of SZABIST Alumni Global Association (SAGA).
