CERTIFICATE OF HIGHER EDUCATION IN COMMON LAW (UNIVERSITY OF LONDON)

WHY CHOOSE SZABIST RECOGNISED TEACHING CENTRE

We are a University of London Recognised Teaching Centre. Being granted Recognised Teaching Centre status by the University of London means that in the view of the University, we demonstrate a sustained commitment to developing excellence in respect of teaching, support to students and administrative processes.

SZABIST Recognised Teaching Centre provides its students the opportunity to study with the best faculty, many of whom work in the most prominent law firms and corporations. Students, thus, get an opportunity to gain an insight into the real world workings of the legal system while simultaneously getting the finest academic direction.

Our various co-curricular activities provide students an insight into the practical needs of Pakistan's legal system and equip them with the research, leadership, communication, and teamwork skills required to become competent professionals who will be able to serve the country.

WHAT IS CERTHE?

SZABIST, a Recognised Teaching Centre of the University of London, is delighted to have been granted Certificate Teaching Status by the University of London which enables us to offer another route to the LLB Degree through the Certificate of Higher Education in Common Law (CertHE).

Certificate of Higher Education in Common Law (CertHE) is a qualification in its own right that also provides an entry route to degree-level study.

It is ideal if you are ready to study for a degree but do not have the qualifications usually required to enter.

SZABIST now offers an opportunity to students with Intermediate (HSC) backgrounds or O/A Level grades short of the requirement for LLB to begin with the UoL Law Degree as CertHE in 1st Year. Those willing to continue can transfer to the LLB thereon and can complete the LLB in a total of three years.

CertHE students will take the same 4 modules that are a part of the 1st year course of the LLB. The only difference, then, is that the CertHE students will receive additional tuitions in English Language and Study Skills to support them with the course.

CertHE Courses

CertHE in Common Law Five Modules

Contract law

Criminal Law

Legal systems and method

Public Law

English Language Course

Admission Requirements

To be eligible to register for this CertHE programme, you must be at least 18 years of age and one of the following should be applicable:

- Pass in Intermediate with minimum 55% in total OR
- 6 passes in GCE O-Level

Entrance Tests & Interview

If you fulfill the admissions requirements as above, you must also pass the two tests conducted by University of London and SZABIST respectively. Once you have passed these tests, the last requirement before registration is to pass is an interview conducted at SZABIST.

Introduction of Day Program

For the first time, SZABIST is planning to introduce LLB and CertHE classes in the day as well to cater to students who prefer to attend classes during the afternoon. The evening classes shall also continue as per the norm. Applicants to SZABIST, Faculty of Law will have the option of applying for either the afternoon or evening programme, depending on their preference.
